

It's Easy to Make the Switch to American First Credit Union!

Welcome to American First Credit Union! Switching your account(s) to AFCU is easy with our convenient Switch Kit. It contains forms you can use to update your direct deposits and automatic payments and close your account(s) at your previous financial institution.

Transition Tips

- Begin by opening your new American First account online or at one of our branches.
- Let your employer and anyone else who makes direct deposits into your account know that they should now be made to your American First account.
- Let all the companies or other entities that make automatic payments or withdrawals from your account know that they should now be debited from your American First account.
- Once all of your outstanding checks have cleared and your direct deposits and automatic payments or withdrawals have been stopped, close your account(s) at your previous financial institution.

Automatic Payments

Think carefully about all the businesses and others who debit payments or other transactions directly from your current account. Look at your account statement and identify all the automatic debits and who makes them. You may have debits that automatically occur monthly, weekly, annually or at other intervals. All of these initiators will need to be notified of your new instructions. There may be more than you think. Some examples might be your mortgage payment, car payment, health club membership, or insurance payments. Also look at any pre-set payments you may have through your current financial institution's online bill pay service.

PLEASE SUBMIT THIS FORM TO ANY COMPANY THAT MAKES AUTOMATIC WITHDRAWALS FROM YOUR ACCOUNT. ATTACH A VOIDED CHECK FROM YOUR NEW AMERICAN FIRST ACCOUNT.
