American First Credit Union Associates
Give of Their Time at Someone Cares Soup Kitchen

Saturday, August 17, 2013 found American First Credit Union Associates helping out at Someone Cares Soup Kitchen in Costa Mesa. The Credit Union has been volunteering there since May 2012.

Associates Cynthia Currier, Lydia Lopez, Jose Jimenez, and Victoria Kaloper, along with Ms. Currier's friend Peggy Mathison, were kept busy assisting with the setup, food service, and cleanup.

“At American First Credit Union, our Associates understand how important it is to reach out to those in our community who may be experiencing difficulties in their lives and need a helping hand,” said Jon Shigematsu, President and CEO of the Credit Union. “Someone Cares Soup Kitchen does such wonderful work, and it is our great pleasure to assist them in their efforts.”

Someone Cares Soup Kitchen is located at 720 West 19th Street, Costa Mesa, CA 92627. It was founded by Merle Hatleberg and has served more than 300 meals per day for over 20 years to those who are in need.

American First Credit Union (AFCU) is a member-owned, full-service financial cooperative established in 1952. AFCU has over $513 million in assets and serves more than 40,800 members.
