American First Credit Union Associates and Friends
Volunteer at Someone Cares Soup Kitchen

American First Credit Union Associates and friends were proud to volunteer their time at Someone Cares Soup Kitchen in Costa Mesa on Saturday, May 11, 2013.

Associates Jose Jimenez and Ruby Huggler, along with Ruby's friends Minerva Saruwatari and John B. Saruwatari, assisted with the set up, food service and clean-up at Someone Cares Soup Kitchen, and were enthusiastic about lending a hand to this very worthy cause.

“American First Credit Union has been volunteering at Someone Cares Soup Kitchen since May 2012,” said Jon Shigematsu, President and CEO of the Credit Union. “All of our Associates know and embrace the importance of giving back to the community. Even more, they enjoy supporting efforts like Someone Cares Soup Kitchen that have such a positive impact.”

Someone Cares Soup Kitchen is located at 720 West 19th Street, Costa Mesa, CA 92627. It was founded by Merle Hatleberg and has served more than 300 meals per day for over 20 years to those who are in need.

American First Credit Union (AFCU) is a member-owned, full-service financial cooperative established in 1952. AFCU has over $513 million in assets and serves more than 40,800 members.
